SLIGHT DECLINE IN LIST.

Materal Fall in Inactive Stocks, Due to Chicago Gas Break and Liquidation.

Wall Street, Thursday, Oct. 7. arket was dull and heavy to-day, desnite the announcement of further gold imports, amounting to $1,000,000. A sharp break in Chicago Gas of 5 per cent un-doubtedly unsettled the market. The bears, however, took advantage of the weakness in Chicago Gas to cover large ines of short contracts, and this buying fiset the liquidation by commission houses The latter report that the growth of the Henry George movement has thrown a upon speculation, and customers have in heavy orders to sell stocks on all

The net result of the day's trading was dight fractional declines in a majority of Material declines were recorded by imputive stocks, showing the force of general liquidation. Another significant fact demonstrating the extent of the cur-rent liquidation is the fact that after a 0-point break in prices there is a comparasmall short interest, and stocks can ot be loaned freely.

The course of foreign exchange to-day indicated that no large imports of gold are probable in the near future. The buying of bills against the $1,500,000 engaged yesterday and to-day was sufficient to clean floating surplus in the exchange and demand sterling bills, after 2 recession early in the day, closed than last night.

WILL WAR ON THE TRUST.

Wall Street Interests Concerned Made a Vain Fight to Stem the Tide.

Chleago Gas stock took a tumble yester-day on the reports of the sale of com-petitive gas companies there to a New York syndleate, which will wage war against the old Trust. The stock opened at simultaneous quotations ranging from 96 to 95, an extreme decline of 2% from the closing price on Wednesday. It declined rapidly du-ring the early trading, touching 92%, a lump of 5%, and rallied later in the day to

Wall Street interests which are identified with the Chicago Gas Trust made every effort to stem the decline, but it was not until the advance in the general list, owing to the imports of gold, that any progress could be made in lifting the stock oul of

could be made in lifting the stock out of the ruck. The shorts in Gas made money and purchasers for their account in taking profits helped the delayed raily.

The opposition companies secured were the Mutual and Uuniversal, both of which have been maintaining a quiet fight against the Trust, which is now known officially as the Peoples' Consolidated Gaslight and Coke Company. The price paid is said to be $6,750,000, the acceptance of which was
